

LIVES WINTER SCHOOL ON LIFE COURSE 2016

The LIVES Life Course Winter School is a one-week intensive program on life course research. These interdisciplinary workshops (drawing from sociology, social psychology, life-span psychology, social demography, social policy) will occur in small groups of 6 to 8 students. Three experts will lead each of these research workshops, with the aim of preparing collaborative articles through a process of learning by doing.

WORKSHOPS TOPICS | FEBRUARY 27 - MARCH 5, 2016 | HÔTEL DES DIABLERETS (CH)

1 Loss of a partner in a life course perspective

- Laura Bernardi, University of Lausanne
- Pasqualina Perrig Chiello, University of Berne
- Betina Hollstein, University of Bremen

2 How to preserve cognitive health in old age?

- Matthias Kliegel, University of Geneva
- Andreas Ihle, University of Geneva
- David Bunce, University of Leeds

ORGANIZED BY A CONSORTIUM OF FIVE RESEARCH CENTERS

Swiss National Center of Competence in Research LIVES, University of Lausanne & University of Geneva (CH)
Hallie Ford Center for Healthy Children & Families, Oregon State University (USA)
Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences (BIGSSS), University of Bremen (D)
Centre for Population, Aging and Health, Western University (CA)
Ageing and Living Conditions Programme (ALC), Umeå University (SE)

STEERING COMMITTEE

Laura Bernardi	University of Lausanne
Delphine Fagot	University of Geneva
Walter Heinz	University of Bremen
Johan Lundberg	Umeå University
Julie McMullin	Western University, Canada
Michel Oris	University of Geneva
Richard Settersten	Oregon State University
Dario Spini	University of Lausanne
Eric Widmer	University of Geneva

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Venue	Hôtel des Sources, Les Diablerets (Switzerland)
Tuition	500 CHF (480 EUR or 520 USD)
Application	Motivation letter, resume, thesis project abstract
Registration deadline	December 1st, 2015
Contacts	Delphine Fagot, LIVES Doctoral Program Officer and co-organizer, winterschool@lives-nccr.ch

